

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF IOWA

IN RE:

CHAPTER 13
BANKRUPTCY NO. 18-00337-lmj13

RONNIE L CROWDIS, II,
JERI A CROWDIS,

TRUSTEE'S MOTION TO DISMISS CASE

Debtors.

COMES NOW the Chapter 13 trustee and states to the Court:

1. The confirmed plan states that starting March 2018, the debtors are to make payments totaling $29,700.00 for the first 23 months, then starting February 2020, payments of $1,650.00 each month for 37 months each month for 60 months, plus income tax refunds each year.
2. Through December 2020, the trustee should have received at least $47,850.00. To date, the trustee has received $42,900.00, leaving a delinquency of $4,950.00, or 3.00 months in arrears. Another monthly payment of $1,650.00 for the month of January will be due by the hearing date on this motion.
3. Trustee has requested the debtors to turn over their 2019 State and Federal tax returns and tax refunds, if any. To date, the trustee has not received the requested tax returns or applicable tax refunds.

WHEREFORE, the Chapter 13 trustee recommends that, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 1307(c), the case be dismissed.

In the Matter of:

Case No. 18-00337-lmj13

RONNIE L CROWDIS, II
JERI A CROWDIS,

Debtor(s)

NOTICE AND ORDER REGARDING HEARING
(Courtroom—No Testimony)

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that the Court will conduct a hearing on 2/17/21 at 1:30 p.m. on the following matter(s):

Trustee's Motion to Dismiss Case

Hearing location: Courtroom 2, 4th Floor, U.S. Courthouse Annex, 110 East Court Avenue, Des Moines, Iowa

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

(1) The parties shall be prepared to proceed on the date and time indicated above. (Attorneys shall advise their clients when client attendance is not required.) Attire and demeanor must be appropriate to the seriousness of the occasion. Only attorneys and their employees may carry cell phones and other portable communication devices into the courthouse location(s) identified above, and devices that cause audible sound must be turned off when a party is in the courtroom. When Court is in session, all discussions before and after the hearing shall take place outside the courtroom.

(2) The parties shall promptly advise the assigned judge's calendar/courtroom deputy of any settlement, scheduling conflict or change in attorney handling the hearing.

(3) An attorney seeking a continuance must file a motion to continue hearing that indicates good cause for the continuance and that contains a professional or verified statement that one's client and all opposing parties have been contacted and that those entities either consent to or resist the motion. (Orders granting motions are the exception, not the rule.)

(4) If no bar date notice preceded the matter(s) noticed for hearing above, a party against whom relief is sought shall file an objection, if any, at least one full calendar week before the hearing date. If this Order and Notice was docketed and served on an expedited basis, then any objection must be filed at least one full working day before the hearing.

(5) If the parties intend to rely upon exhibits at the time of the hearing, at least one full calendar week before the hearing date they must (a) exchange marked exhibits, (b) submit those exhibits (one set of copies) directly to the assigned judge's chambers and (c) file only their respective list of exhibits with the Clerk of Court. If this Order and Notice was docketed and served on an expedited basis, the exchange, submission and filing must be done at least one full working day before the hearing. Each party shall retain the originals of the exhibits until offered at the time of the hearing. Debtor(s) in chapter cases and plaintiff(s) in adversary proceedings shall use consecutive numbers; creditor(s) in chapter cases and defendant(s) in adversary proceedings shall use consecutive letters. When a matter entails multiple creditors or multiple plaintiffs or defendants, self-explanatory acronyms should be used in addition to the numbers or letters. If an exhibit consists of more than one page, the party offering the exhibit shall number the pages at the bottom of each page.

(6) The time allotted for the hearing is 10 minutes.

(7) If they have not already done so, the parties shall file hearing briefs by N/A.
